BPC-157 + KPV

Healthy Gut and Healing*

With the majority of our immune system living in the gut, maintaining gut health is of utmost importance to supporting patient health. Biote's BPC-157+KPV was expertly formulated to support healthy gut and healing.*

BPC-157

BPC-157 is an endogenous peptide – a chain of amino acids originating from within the body. Non-human studies have suggested that BPC-157 supports a healthy gut, healthy immune balance, and healthy healing of muscles, tendons, ligaments, and wounds.*

KPV

Similar to BPC-157, KPV has also been shown in non-human studies to support healthy immune balance, a healthy gut, and healthy healing of muscles, tendons, ligaments, and wounds.*

BPC-157 + KPV is a vegan, hypoallergenic formula that may benefit patients wanting to improve gut health or immune status. However, it is not recommended for cancer patients, patients with a history of cancer, or women who are pregnant or breastfeeding.
